Presentation

Next week you will give a 2 minute presentation on your storyboard and animation idea. You need to write a script for your presentation. It must include:

- The basic plot
- Why you have chosen the characters
- How it will appeal to the age range
- Where you will get the images from
- Any other important information about your storyboard

Use the box below to think about your ideas and either write a whole script for you to follow or notes which you can use.
