MOTIVATION

Faizul Awal works for the local baker. His responsibilities are to open the bakery every morning, switch on the ovens and prepare the mixture for the items to be baked that day. He left school with two GCSE's, working at the bakery part-time while he finished his studies. He then continued working for the company full-time once he gained his qualifications. He works a 40-hour week and earns £7 000 per annum. In the bakery there are ten other people controlled by one manager.

*What areas of dissatisfaction might exist for Faizul?
What opportunities for motivation might exist in Faizul's job?*

All Homework must be handed in on the date requested.

If you hand in homework late or it is of an unacceptable standard you will be given a p6.

MOTIVATION

Rupinder Viridi works in a school science department where she is a senior laboratory technician. She is responsible for three other members of staff who help the science department. Her work includes ensuring that all the equipment the staff need is prepared and ready for use each lesson. She has worked for the school for four years, having worked in a previous school for two years as a laboratory assistant. She completed her HND in Science and earns £20 000 per annum. Her hours vary depending on the work needed - there are no fixed hours.
